Tenshin Oomikami

Goreizen

Goshinzen

Tenshin Oomikami is the name of the Divine, Venerable, and Almighty only living God of Salvation that governs all things in the universe, controls human destiny, and through a divine power that is beyond human conception, opens the way for all of humanity to find true happiness.

From the audience perspective, the left side of the stage represents ancestors, Goreizen, while the right side represents God, Goshinzen.

— The Happiness of Living in Peace —

When you think about the world, haven't you had these kinds of questions?

“Why does that person have it all together?”

“Why are good people so unlucky even when they work hard?”

We, Tenshin Seikyo, have answers to these questions. We are being shown how to be happier people.

How can we say this with absolute certainty?

That is because Tenshin Seikyo is established by the advent of God that governs all things in the universe.

Please feel free to visit and talk to us after reading through this brochure.

On that note, you can pray for anything you want.

God will welcome you with His great love and make your wish come true immediately.

If you think,

“Having said that, I am worried.” • • •

It is natural that people who do not know our God and our community have questions and fears. Any questions are welcome. Please feel free to ask to our priests. Many people say that just meeting and talking to a priest solved their problem. On the next page, we answer some frequently asked questions about God and Tenshin Seikyo. We hope that you will find answers here and learn more about God.

Q. “I don’t believe God exists, how will He make my wish come true?”

A. Whether you believe in God or not, He will show you His existence undeniably. It will be a different experience for each person, such as solving problems, hearing God's word in people's voices, or seeing dreams about ancestors, as well as any number of other signs. They all share one thing: they are magical, just like a fairy tale, full of astonishment. No matter what your experience is, it will be the best result for you. Even when the conclusion does not follow our interest, over time, it is clear that the result was right for our lives.

On the contrary, if an experience from God can be unraveled by science, human knowledge, or philosophy, it is proven to be a human experience, not a divine one.

Q. “Could I ask for anything?”

A. The reason why people have faith in God is that they want to be happy and fulfilled. Humans cannot do this alone, so God is necessary to make up the remainder. That is why people pray to God, “Please bless me with the best result.”

There is a saying, “Ask God as you would ask your mother in childhood.” As with any wishes, you should pray sincerely and innocently from your heart to God. When your wish and heart match God’s will, it will absolutely come true. Likewise, priests of Tenshin Seikyo will guide and pray for your wish come true.

Q. “Who is the God of Tenshin Seikyo?”

A. We call Him Tenshin Oomikami-sama. He is the only God who created this universe, the only living God of salvation tasked with governing all things. In 1892 (Meiji 25), about two thousand years after the birth of Jesus Christ, he came to the boy Heikichi, the older brother of the founder. Later, God revealed that He is the God who sent Jesus Christ to humanity. God governs not only His own world, but also the world of ancestral spirits, the physical world, and the worlds beyond time and space.

Q. “What is His will?”

A. Seiichi Shimada, the founder of Tenshin Seikyo, is the medium between God and humanity. He received God’s word directly, these are Goshinji (His prophecies and commandments). These can be explained in three categories. First, the Goshinji explains God’s world, the world of ancestral spirits, and the physical world. Secondly, they detail the laws of the universe, scientific progress, and the future of humanity. Lastly, they advise us on the right way to live. In addition to these words, there are also books, Osatoshi and Kami-no-mikokoro, containing the preaching of Tenshin Seikyo, thus the believers learn from them and stay true to their faith.

Q. “If I believe in God, how will I become happy?”

A. God will take out and hold on to your essential bad luck; instead He will give you good luck. Hence, you'll be safe from things caused by bad luck such as accidents, fights, diseases, natural disasters, or poverty. You will gradually and naturally meet good fortune. God will save you whenever, therefore you will be able to live in peace and safety. Nowadays, natural disasters and wars never end; living life in harmony is the greatest satisfaction for us. For that, however, there is one condition. You must pray for your ancestors. You wouldn't be truly happy if you were to wish only for your own happiness. Praying for your ancestors is the first step to being truly and fully happy. When both you in the physical world and your ancestors in the spirit world gain faith in God, and pray for each other, you will be fulfilled.

Origin of Tenshin Seikyo

God and the 10 Year Old Boy

In 1892 (Meiji 25), God suddenly showed His appearance to Heikichi Shimada, a ten year old boy who lived in Oogoe, Kazo-city, Saitama. Ever since then, so many mysterious miracles happened, creating Tenshin Seikyo.

The Prediction of the Founder's Birth

On New Year's Day in 1895, Heikichi predicted his brother's birth correctly: February 11th, 1896, 13 months before he was born. God named the boy, Seiichi. On the day of his brother's birth, God told Heikichi,

"I have to bid you farewell but as time passes, I will send the one who has my will, so you have to wait until the time comes."

Then, God returned to His world.

God's Second Advent 40 Years Later

40 years had passed since God returned to His world, when God suddenly descended from His world to Seiichi, who hit rock bottom with his business. God said,

"I will give you precious gifts, so be sure to hold a celebration on February 11th, the day you were born."

Then, Seiichi and his coworkers hugely profited from God's prophecy about the market price of millet.

Establishment of Tenshin Seikyo and the Continuous Miracles

This prophecy was when Seiichi gained faith in God, and in 1951 (Showa 26), he also got another message saying,

"Seiichi, you must dedicate your body and soul to reform religion, and give new life to it and humanity. I will protect you."

Then, he established Tenshin Seikyo. Since then, God has been working uncountable miracles, venerably saving millions of people every day.

— True Stories From Believers —

Wholeheartedly Serving God with the Hope of Eliminating Bad Karma

Fu Chiu Ji Kawashima (60s, Ibaraki)

~After Realizing My Bad Karma, I Joined This Religion~

In November, 2014, I heard about Tenshin Oomikami-sama from missionary Ms. Yuko Miyauchi and visited Honbu Seido with my aunt for the first time. At that time, the priest at Honbu Seido said, 'There is something called bad karma between people, and it is caused by their ancestors and previous life. The God, Tenshin Oomikami-sama, takes that karma away and brings happiness.'

I also wanted my bad karma taken away, so I joined on that day.

I got married at the age of 20 and had a son and two daughters. However, our economic situation gradually worsened, and I suffered from my husband's debt, violence, and disputes with my relatives. I thought, "I cannot be happy with this," and divorced him.

Initially, our three children lived with their father, but they could not endure his stepmother's behavior and came to me. We started living together, and I raised them while working at a duty-free shop. Eventually, the children grew up, and I went to Japan to help my aunt, who owned a restaurant.

Later, I ran a Chinese restaurant with a friend and met my current husband. We got married, and I closed my restaurant to help my husband's business. However, he could not provide enough money for our living expenses, and I later found out that his company had a large debt. Whenever I complained, he would turn violent, and I had to run away and seek protection from the police. I also went to a mental health clinic.

I felt like my fate was to suffer from money and disputes with both my current and previous husband. I joined this religion, obtained my deregistration certificate from Taiwan, organized my ancestors ledger, and prayed to God with all my heart for the elimination of my bad karma, following the priest's guidance.

Gradually, we stopped having trouble with our living expenses, and the debt of my husband's company started to decrease, stabilizing our household finances.

~My Husband Shouted, "I'll Kill You!" ~

Afterwards, I experienced an event that made me realize my own bad karma.

On June 17th last year, my previously calm husband suddenly shouted in the middle of the night, 'I'll kill you!' at me.

However, the next day, he didn't remember anything about it. That day was my paternal grandfather's death anniversary, and I suddenly remembered my grandfather's sins and wrongdoings.

My mother was an only child, and she was planning to adopt a son-in-law.

However, when my parents met, my mother married into my father's family instead.

As a condition of the marriage, my paternal grandfather made a promise with my maternal grandmother that "if they had children, one of them would become the successor to my mother's family."

My parents got married, and eventually, twin boys were born. However, my grandfather broke the promise he made with my grandmother because he loved both of the boys too much. My maternal grandmother was angry and cursed, burning incense and praying, "My family will come to an end. May niece's family also come to an end." Within three months, the twin brothers died for no apparent reason.

When my husband made his rare outburst, I remembered this story and immediately apologized to God, asking for forgiveness for my grandfather's sins and praying for his happiness in the split world. Ten days later, on June 27th, when my mother's death anniversary, we held a special memorial service at Honbu Seido. Two days later, I saw a dream.

I was in God's courtroom, and the judgment for me was "the sin of divorce." The reason was "I caused sadness to many people by getting divorced." However, God said to me, "If you serve God wholeheartedly, your sins will be forgiven." I woke up from the dream and remembered the guidance I received from my teacher at Honbu Seido: "Even if your second marriage is difficult, you should not divorce. If you make a sincere effort and leave everything to God, your bad karma will be eliminated, and you will be led to a happy life." Along with realizing my grandfather's wrongdoings, I was able to understand my own deep karma.

~Aiming to Establish a Taiwan Branch~

I am now able to enjoy my future in peace, free from the worries and anxieties that had plagued me before.

My husband, who is now elderly, has become the chairman of our company, and I am working as the president, along with our employees, to contribute to the company's growth.

I am filled with the desire to help as many people as possible and serve God in any way I can.

Together with my Taiwanese aunt, Keri Ikeda, we have introduced about 20 Taiwanese people to join our religion, and last year we were able to establish the "Ibaraki Branch Taiwan Shinsei-kai."

We can now freely travel between Taiwan and Japan.

In the future, we will work hard to spread the teachings of our religion and increase the number of believers in Taiwan so that we can establish a Taiwan branch and bring even more joy to God.

Granddaughter with Depression Started to go to School 3 Days After Joining

Eiko Kotani (80s, Osaka)

My granddaughter was shocked after failing her college entrance exams, so she became very depressed and stopped going to school. She stayed home all the time, and began having suicidal thoughts. This situation continued for over two years, I confided in my younger brother, who said, "I will have a gathering of Tenshin Seikyo members, let's pray together for your granddaughter." I attended this gathering, and my brother prayed seriously, "God, please save my sister's granddaughter."

In a few days, a mysterious thing happened. My granddaughter, who did not have meals with us for over two years, suddenly came out of her room and started to have meals and conversations with us. At this moment, I hadn't become a believer yet, but God showed me His miracle first. Therefore, I was very surprised and decided to be a believer immediately, and then another mysterious thing happened. My granddaughter started to say, "I am going to school by myself." When I think back on those two years, this great change in my granddaughter must have been a miracle. I cannot be thankful enough to God.

My Cancer Came Out of My Nose and Fully Recovered

Satoru Taniguchi (80s, Osaka)

At a medical checkup, the doctor found my eyesight was deteriorating on the left side, so I took a CT scan at the university hospital. According to the doctor, "Your lung cancer has metastasized to your optic nerve, it is covered in tumors. The surgery is difficult, so you should prepare for the possibility of losing your eyesight." At this time, I was a member of another religion but my nephew persuaded me, "You should have faith in the God I believe in, and your disease will absolutely recover!" So, I came to a Tenshin Seikyo church with my wife, and I joined.

I went to the church and prayed before the second checkup. On my way back from the hospital, in the restroom of a shinkansen (bullet train), about ten centimeters of pus came out from my nose several times. Moreover, two days before the third checkup, when I was on my way to the church, something thick came out of my nose again.

Later, when I was hospitalized again and underwent an operative examination, they saw the tumor had disappeared. That tumor became just an inflammation. The doctor was very surprised and explained its condition awkwardly. After the surgery, I recovered very well, and more surprisingly, my lung cancer has also disappeared. Therefore, I could return to my job in less than a month.

My Luck Changed After Converting From Christianity to Tenshin Seikyo

Ikuko Nakajima (60s, Tokyo)

I joined Tenshin Seikyo while I was still a Christian. In Christianity, greed is one of the Seven Deadly Sins, and for that reason, I didn't ask for anything in prayer. Instead, I prayed that "I will follow God's will without question," even though I was distressed by many troubles.

One day, I was in trouble with my family, and I finally couldn't take it anymore, "I cannot believe what I've been believing as a Christian anymore." Still, I believed in God. Then, I remembered what one of my friends, who is a follower of Tenshin Seikyo, Ms. Hideko Nakagawa, said, "I also have faith in God," so I asked her to take me to the church of Tenshin Seikyo.

When I became a member of this religion, a priest told me, "You can ask God as you would ask your mother in childhood." This absolutely saved my heart. Recently, I had been thinking of my deceased grandmother, older brother, and my child who died only five days after his birth, so I asked to hold memorial services for them. Slowly but surely, the issues in my family started to change for the better. My daughter, who had been struggling with her mental and physical health, could return to work as a nurse. Then, my husband prayed over video chat with us to come home from America, and before the call ended, received confirmation from his company that he would. Lastly, issues with my husband's parents were suddenly resolved. I have never felt this much happiness before. At first, I doubted Tenshin Seikyo's God, but now, because of God's miracles, I am sure.

My Son's Suicidal Thoughts Disappeared by Having Memorial Services for Ancestors

Misumi Suzuki (70s, Nagasaki)

~Son Asked to Die~

My son entered college with high motivation, and it all went well until he finished his sophomore year. When he started his junior year, he spent six years trying to become a senior. Finally, he quit school at the age of 26, after 8 years since enrolling. After he came back home, he started to stay inside all day and stopped talking to us. Two years passed with no changes. At this point, he decided to attend a school specializing in technology, and got a license to teach. Then, he became a teacher at the school. However, one day, he came home with bruises all over his body, and he begged, "Let me die." After this, he saw a psychiatrist and started taking medication, but he disappeared whenever I took my eyes off of him.

Nine years had already passed keeping watch over him, when my friend, Ms. Toyofuku, came to mind, "God will save you..." I called her, and soon after, she came over to my house and took us to the church in Nagasaki. I decided to join Tenshin Seikyo, and prayed with my son, Ms. Toyofuku, and a priest.

A month later, my son became calm, and as the priest instructed, I started to hold a memorial service for my ancestors by writing their names on my mitama-daichou. Also, my son started Hassan-no-gyo (a training routine of walking and praying to improve physical and mental health). While he was doing this, I continued to pray, "Please help us," at the church during morning prayer and Okomori (the ritual of praying 33 times at 2:00 A.M.).

~A Vision of God~

Half a year after joining Tenshin Seikyo, I experienced a mysterious thing while I was praying. I saw a tall man with long hair wearing a thick, white kimono made of linen. Then, the tall man raised his arms, as if he were protecting my ancestors. When I first saw him, I noticed that he is God. They were all in a church-like room, with God at the front. I told a priest about this, and he said, "That is God telling you that your ancestors gained faith in God." Therefore, I decided to pray for my ancestors' happiness even more, and I especially prayed for some ancestors that I really cared for.

Since then, my son changed dramatically: his gloomy face became brighter, he started saying "Good morning!" to us, and finally, he started driving and looking for a job by himself. These were big surprises for me, and all of my family members were very pleased. I thank God that my son got a job, and that my husband, who was doubtful about God, now has faith in Him. Before I learned about God, I suffered through long days for 19 years, but now I can say I'm truly happy.

Complete Recovery From Skin Cancer and Paid Off My 35 Year Housing Loan

Yuji Ogata (50s, Gunma)

~Diagnosed With Cancer Right After Buying a New House~

A year after joining Tenshin Seikyo, I was looking for a new house. I realized that something was wrong with my body. I've always had a big mole on the left side of my stomach since I was born, but suddenly it was swelling. I went to see a doctor, and he said, "This is just a mole," so I was relieved for the moment.

After a while, I found a good piece of land and my house was built. I was very motivated to work, but the mole on my left stomach got bigger again. I thought, "Something must be wrong. It shouldn't be getting this big." I went to see a doctor again, and his face fell. He biopsied my mole, tested it, and found it was melanoma. Moreover, it was an aggressive cancer, which is easy to spread, quickly gets worse, and has a high mortality rate. I immediately got a second opinion, but the result was the same. The cancer was already six millimeters deep, so the chance of it spreading was high. I went to the church of Tenshin Seikyo and saw a priest, who said, "You cannot change your fate but you can change your destiny. God will always save you." And then, he sincerely prayed for me.

~Successful Surgery and Arrangement of Insurance~

The surgery was hard, I needed a skin graph. However, it was still a great success. A few days later, the doctor found another tumor under my left arm, but it was benign. I strongly felt that God always protects me. I didn't experience most of the side effects I expected from my medication after the surgery.

After a while, a person from the insurance company for my mortgage came. I previously bought insurance for my house, and he was suspicious about whether I had hidden my cancer at the time. Things had never been worse, I had to think about selling my new house, because if the insurance was denied, I wouldn't be able to afford it. If that happened, I would feel deeply sorry for my wife as well.

~Insurance Paid All 35 Years of My Mortgage~

Despite my concern, my insurance claim was approved because my first doctor before getting the insurance diagnosed my cancer as “just a mole.” Therefore, I could pay all of my mortgage off from the insurance. I was supposed to pay them separately for 35 years, but now I could pay all of them in a year. As a priest said, God saved me and changed my destiny. Today, my doctor tells me that I only need a checkup every three months. When I was diagnosed with cancer, I never imagined this could happen. I am very grateful that I have such a happy life and job, given to me by the greatest God.

A Streak of Good Luck After Unemployment

Norimoto Maruyama (50s, Tokyo)

I am an interior designer. One day, the company I was working with went bankrupt because of the economic depression. At this time, my wife was the only person who believed in God; I did not even hold my hands together in prayer. After I became unemployed, I was overwhelmed. Therefore, I went to the church with my wife and talked to a priest at Tenshin Seikyo. To be honest, I was doubtful at first, but I didn't have a choice, so I begged God. After I got home, one of my friends, who runs his own interior design company, called me saying, “I need your help.” He seemed to be having trouble with staff shortage. I accepted his offer, and everything went well. This is the first time I believed in God's power. At this new workplace, I hit the ground running, so shortly after, I was selected as a leader. I made a lot of money and finally overcame a hard time.

After I went to the church with my wife to dedicate my gratitude to God, I met a person who pushed me to become independent; I could finally have my own company. After I became independent, I received an offer from a major tobacco company to design their all of brand new stores. Then, I started the biggest project I had ever imagined for the New York branch store of a major clothing company. This project became famous, so I got more offers. After this big success, I built my own office as well. Luckily, I made a new partnership with a major construction company, so I had a stable work flow. God saved me from rock bottom, and He gave me the path to the happiness. I am thankful to God from the bottom of my heart.

Because he Believed, he was Saved

Reiko Kunitate (70s, Tokyo)

I suddenly got a call from my husband who was by himself in Bangkok, "I'm in the hospital, I got a sudden pain in my stomach." My husband did not seriously believe in God, but he continued, "I want you to pray for me."

According to the result of the checkup, it was acute pancreatitis and acute hepatitis caused by a bile duct stone. The pancreatitis had already spread to his left lung, where he had developed pleural effusion, a buildup of fluid. The doctor said, however, "I wonder why it hasn't become jaundice even though the level of liver enzymes is so high. While I was praying sincerely, the complete infection control measures were applied to him, therefore, he was stabilized and could come back to Japan."

After his return, a doctor said, "The condition of his liver is really bad. Pancreatic fluid is leaking, and you have a cyst. I cannot believe you didn't die and could come back in this condition." Soon, he had a checkup at the university hospital, and was told, "A pancreatic duct in your liver got cut. That is why fluid is leaking. If the cyst were to be infected by a virus, it will threaten your life. If you have a fever, you have to be hospitalized immediately." He continued, "It will take at least a half year to a year until the cyst is gone. It will be up to God." I told my husband to pray and begged Him sincerely. Then, he decided to go to the church in Tokyo to pray for his health. Surprisingly, his condition became better and better every time he went to the church.

After two months, the cyst became smaller with no infections. After all, he didn't have to be hospitalized again. I am thankful to God's power and His love from the bottom of my heart.

Full Recovery from Inoperable Cancer

Keiko Ando (70s, Hokkaido)

One day, I felt like having a medical checkup, so I went to see a doctor. The doctor said, "You have biliary cancer. If you don't start treatment immediately, you won't live longer than half a year." I was very shocked by what he said. I didn't even feel any symptoms until then, so I couldn't believe it. It was too shocking for me to cry.

According to the result of a detailed health examination, the cancer had metastasized to my upper and lower liver, portal vein, blood vessel, and lymph. Therefore, the doctor said, "It's too late to operate." At this moment, the cancer had already advanced to stage IV.

But then, I heard about the story of God from my cousin, Mihoko Watanabe. At this point, I'm willing to do anything I could, so I decided to join Tenshin Seikyo. Because I was hospitalized, I told a priest about my situation over the phone. The priest said, "You should change hospitals." Therefore, as he said, I changed my hospital to another. For some reason, at the new hospital, I could have surgery for my cancer from an excellent surgeon. I sincerely prayed on my bed at the hospital every day. The doctor said, "Even though you will have surgery, your cancer could relapse in a month." However, my cancer didn't metastasize or relapse.

Later, another cancer was found on my thyroid gland, but at this time, I wasn't upset at all. I trusted God and I removed the right and left lobes of my thyroid gland. After the surgery, I didn't have any metastasis or relapse of cancer. I live my daily life happily just like when I was totally healthy. I am very grateful that I experienced God's salvation through His great power. Any big misfortunes can be reduced to small ones.

In our religion,
